

Artist Cynthia Shuler

Cynthia resides in Pawleys Island, SC, but has lived and traveled globally since she was the child of an Air Force pilot and married a missionary. She is a third generation artist on her mother's side, and has been painting and printmaking since completing her BFA at Miami University. She has won prizes in several juried competitions, and has had one woman shows in several cities. Her work is in many private collections in several states and overseas. She is a member of the Oil Painters of America, American Women Artist and American Impressionist Society.

You can also view her work online at <http://choppinshuler.com>

